

Protest barriers

Not willing to Willing to Already do / did

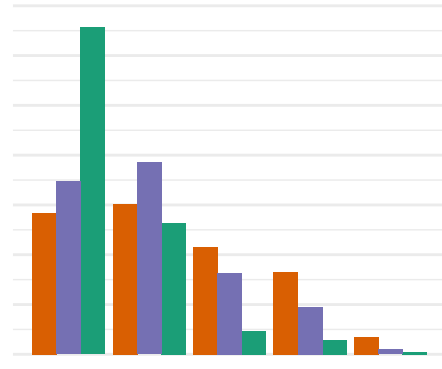

It might negatively affect my reputation

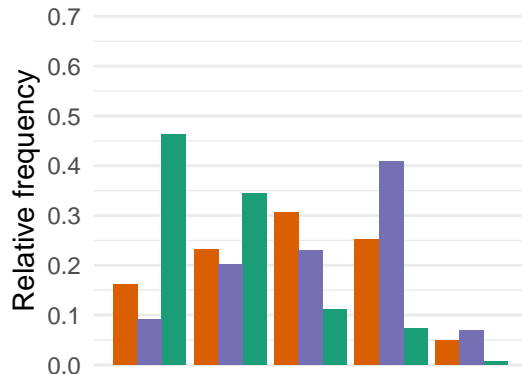

It might lead to repercussions from my employer, funding agencies, or the government

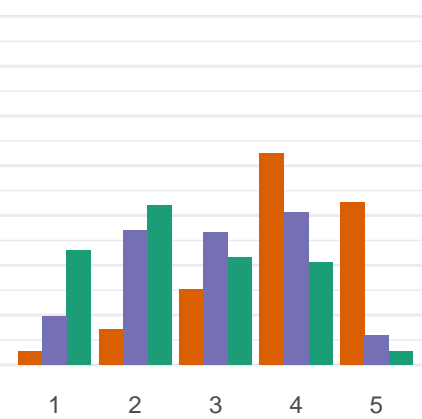

I do not know enough about climate change to engage in such actions

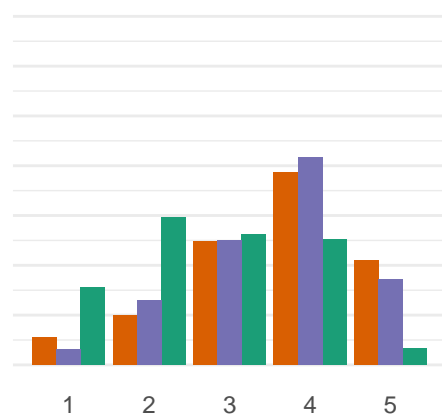

I do not know any groups that already engage in these actions and that I could join

I am not convinced that such actions would have real impact

I simply do not have time to engage in them

I would feel uneasy participating due to my carbon-intensive lifestyle
